Dear Families of Beit Sefer Chadash,

We of the BSC Education Committee are delighted to be starting another school year. Our School Director, Sarah Pew, and our many talented teachers all possess a love for imparting the jewels of Judaism. Their experience and joy in teaching give our school a solid foundation while allowing us to soar.

This year, we hope to encourage a diverse new group of families to join our “veteran” families in offering their children this rich learning experience in Jewish spirituality, Jewish civilization and Judaic arts. The Education Committee is here to support you and respond to your needs as travelers on this path. Our contact information is listed in the back of this packet. Please don’t hesitate to ask us questions.

B’racha,

Beit Sefer Chadash Education Committee

Beit Sefer Chadash, “The New School”, is dedicated to providing meaningful Jewish education by nurturing children’s spirits through the beauty and depth of Jewish heritage and prayer.
